PARIS
FRIDAY, APRIL 26
Today you drive to one of the best-known districts in Paris, Montmartre, which stands on a hill overlooking the right bank. Begin your tour of Montmartre in Place du Tertre (Artist Square) with a walking tour of the Artist Quarter. Meander along the narrow cobblestoned streets where the likes of Picasso, Van Gogh, Derain and countless others lived and worked. Next, visit the magnificent Sacre Coeur Basilica, built by the national will following the defeat in the Franco-Prussian War of 1870 and consecrated in 1919. Visit nearby Saint-Pierre de Montmartre, one of the oldest surviving churches in Paris and where vows were taken by Saint Ignatius Loyola and companions. Although the original church was destroyed during the French Revolution, the rebuilt church still contains some of the original Roman Columns. Descend from Montmartre and travel to the historic district of Le Marais where you will visit the Church of Saint-Paul-Saint-Louise. Built in the 17th Century by Jesuits, the layout was based on that of the 16th Century Gesú Church in Rome and served as the main Jesuit church in Paris until the Jesuits were expelled from France in 1764. Later in the afternoon, enjoy a French cooking class and tasting with an elite Parisian chef and sommelier, giving you a unique opportunity to experience the art of French gastronomy from its source.

PARIS

This impressive estate, built by Louis XIV as a symbol of absolute monarchy, boasts extravagant facades, elaborate furnishings and the magnificent 2,000-acre Gardens of Versailles (Jardins de Versailles). Enjoy a tour of the Palace’s most famous places: the Hall of Mirrors, Grand Apartments of the King and of the Queen, the King’s Bedchamber, the Gardens and more. Visit Monet’s home, a beautifully preserved pastel-pink house flanked by gardens filled with flowers and a famous Japanese bridge. After some time at leisure in the picturesque village, your tour of impressionist art continues as you return to Paris. First, travel to the 16th arrondissement and visit the Monet Marmottan Museum, which contains one of the city’s largest Impressionist collections, including 100 of Claude Monet’s masterpieces.
