

Jesuit Academy in Omaha, NE seeks a President that has demonstrated a strong commitment to Catholic and Jesuit education and is a proven fundraiser. The President will possess a collaborative leadership style, superior communication skills, and strong interpersonal skills. It is critical that the President has the ability to form, motivate, and manage an internal administrative team and build relationships throughout the Omaha community. The preferred candidate will have experience in school leadership, business management and has experience of and enthusiasm for implementing 21st century learning and teaching methods.

TO APPLY:

Please send a resume, a compelling letter of interest indicating how skills, knowledge, and experience match the responsibilities of president to: Mr. John Naatz, Chairperson of the Search Committee at: jnaat@prep.creighton.edu