the companions

2015 – 2016
September 21, 2016

Dear Companions,

In his recent book The Name of God Is Mercy, Pope Francis reminds us of the most important things that believers should do:

We are called to serve Christ the Crucified through every marginalized person. We touch the flesh of Christ in he who is outcast, hungry, thirsty, naked, imprisoned, ill, unemployed, persecuted, in search of refuge. That is where we find our God, that is where we touch the Lord. Jesus himself told us: "...whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did it for me" (Matthew 25:40).

This service to others, so eloquently stated by Pope Francis, is our mission as Jesuits.

The Midwest Jesuits of the Chicago-Detroit and Wisconsin Provinces look back on this year and reflect upon the many accomplishments of our Jesuit ministries, missions, and institutions throughout the 12 states of the upper Midwest, Peru, East Africa, and the Kohima Region of Northeast India. We remember the myriad stories of lives touched, challenged, and changed — of students and parents, homeless and disenfranchised, refugees and seekers, spiritually seeking and physically hurting — and we are grateful. Grateful that we could be a part of listening, assisting, teaching, and healing those we have met along the way.

We also acknowledge that we could not fulfill this calling without the support and prayers of you, our faithful companions. The word companion carries a special meaning for Jesuits. When founding our order, Saint Ignatius wanted his group to be known as the Company of Jesus (synonymous with Society of Jesus). The root of company refers to people who share bread — an ancient symbol of life — mission, and community. And so our company extends beyond Jesuits and the leaders of Jesuit works to include students and alumni, parishioners and retreatants, those who are fed by Ignatian spirituality, and people who help heal a world in need. In a word, our company includes you.

We are grateful for you, our companions in mission and ministry. Thank you.

The Midwest Jesuits pray for you; we ask for your continued prayers for the Jesuits, our companions, and all those we serve. Please remember in prayer the Jesuit delegates who will travel to Rome during October for the 36th General Congregation of the worldwide Society. The delegates will elect a new Superior General and identify how the Society can best serve the needs of the Church and the world in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Brian G. Paulson, SJ
Provincial, Chicago-Detroit Province

“What is the Ignatian Heritage Society?”

Through the years the Society of Jesus has benefited significantly from the generous support of friends and family of the Jesuits through planned gifts and bequests. The Ignatian Heritage Society acknowledges and celebrates the extraordinary generosity of those who choose to provide for the Midwest Jesuits through their estate planning.

Gifts bestowed through the Ignatian Heritage Society support the spiritual and education formation, living expenses, retirement, and health care of the Midwest Jesuits. Additionally, gifts bestowed through this program assist Jesuits serving internationally and support the creation and continued service of many social ministries.

On behalf of the Jesuits, you are invited to become a member of the Ignatian Heritage Society. By including the Midwest Jesuits in your planned giving, you are making an enduring contribution to the Jesuit mission and future of Jesuit ministries.
