

Full-Time Teacher of Theology

Marquette University High School – Milwaukee, Wis.

Job Category: Faculty

Job Start Date: August 2016

Application Closing Date: Until filled

Description:

Marquette University High School is currently looking for a full-time Theology teacher for the Theology Department beginning with the 2016-2017 academic year.

In recent documents the Society of Jesus has stressed that Jesuit schools “should be outstanding not so much for number or size as for teaching, for the quality of instruction, and the service rendered to the people of God.” Marquette University High School seeks teachers qualified in their field who are open to growth, religious, loving, intellectually competent, and committed to social justice.

Teacher expectations include:

- a full-time teaching load of 5 sections per semester
- assisting with pastoral activities including student retreats
- co-curricular involvement
- prefecting duties
- participation in faculty orientation and formation programs

The ideal candidate will:

- demonstrate commitment to the principles of Jesuit education
- possess a Wisconsin Educator License or be working toward licensure
- hold a master’s degree or be working toward a master’s degree
- be well rounded in the field of theology
- have high school teaching experience

Marquette University High School offers a competitive compensation package.
