Jesuits USA Central and Southern Province

RECONCILIATION CONFERENCE

June 18-21, 2018

Regis University, Denver

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Thomas Greene, SJ, JD

Cecelia Calvo

Chris Pramuk, PhD.

Make plans now to join Jesuit colleagues for an inter-apostolic conference at Regis University in Denver.

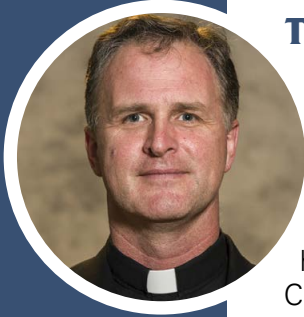

Jesuit colleagues working in higher education, secondary and pre-secondary education, pastoral ministry and social ministries are invited to explore God's invitation to reconciliation as we come together to respond to God, commit to justice and care for our environment.

We will . . .

- Discern how God is inviting us to see, think and act in new and different ways to open the way for reconciliation in our ministries,
- Collaborate and network across various apostolates within the province,
- Share ideas, strategies and best practices about reconciliation through an Ignatian lens,
- Spend time in individual and group prayer centered around reconciliation with God, with others, and with our environment, and
- Support the work of the province.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKERS

Thomas Greene, SJ, JD

Father Tom Greene is currently the superior of the Jesuit Mission in Belize, Central America. He is also a consultant to the provincial of the USA Central and Southern Province, and the assistant to the provincial for international ministries. A lawyer by training, he served as the superior of the Bellarmine House of Studies at Saint Louis University from 2015 to 2017. Before that, he was the secretary for social and international ministries for the Jesuit Conference of Canada and the United States in Washington, D.C.

Chris Pramuk, PhD.

Theologian, author, scholar and lifelong musician, Dr. Chris Pramuk is the chair of Ignatian Thought and Imagination at Regis University, Denver. He holds a doctorate in systematic theology from the University of Notre Dame. His areas of expertise include the life, writings and legacy of Thomas Merton, and contemporary issues at the intersection of spirituality, the arts, theology and racial justice.

Cecelia Calvo

Ms. Cecelia Calvo is the senior advisor on environmental justice in the advocacy office of the Jesuit Conference of Canada and the United States. She is an expert on environmental issues, including climate change and children's health and natural resource policies. She has worked domestically and internationally to help respond to these challenges. Previously, Calvo worked at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), coordinating the Environmental Justice Program.
